

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI PADOVA

FISPPA - DIPARTIMENTO DI FILOSOFIA,
SOCILOGIA, PEDAGOGIA E PSICOLOGIA APPLICATA

Testing EU citizenship as "labour citizenship"

23 October 2015, 15.00-18.00

Sala delle Edicole - Piazza Capitaniato 3, Padova

Introduction: Francesca Alice Vianello, University of Padua

Panelists:

Francesco Iannuzzi, University of Padua

Severe forms of labour exploitation and workers' agency. The case of touristic sector in Rimini

Carlotta Benvegnù, University of Padua

Migrant workers in the logistic sector in Padua. Exploitation and unionization in the cooperatives

Marek Canek, Multicultural Centre Prague

Subcontracting and labour rights of EU citizens in the Czech Republic

Simina Guga, Asociatia CONECT

Romanian migration to the EU: individual economic strategies and approaches to exploitation

Gabriella Alberti, University of Leeds

Intersections of employment and migrant status: the experiences of migrant temp workers in the UK hospitality sector

Bettina Haidinger, FORBA

Migrant Workers in Precarious Employment: Do the Austrian Unions Help?

Nelli Kambouri, Panteion University

Logistic and precarious labour: The Port of Piraeus after the Cosco concession

Nathan Lillie, University of Jyväskylä

Industrial Citizenship and European Integration

Closing remarks: Devi Sacchetto, University of Padua

INGRESSO LIBERO/ FREE ADMISSION

TRADUZIONE SIMULTANEA/ TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION IS PROVIDED